

First step

Add all the pictures together and average them

Second step

Subtract the average from each picture

Third step

histogram equalization, local histogram equalization and so on.